chicago jewish historical society Summer Bus Tours 2010

SUNDAY, JULY 11 — “CHICAGO’S JEWISH WEST SIDE”

Guide: Dr. Irving Cutler

Tour the neighborhoods of Lawndale, Garfield Park, and Austin with the prolific author, whose latest book is Chicago’s Jewish West Side (Arcadia Press). This vibrant center of Jewish cultural life for about half a century contained over 40% of the city’s Jewish population, about 75 synagogues, and numerous other Jewish institutions. View Mount Sinai Hospital, the former Jewish People’s Institute and Hebrew Theological College buildings, and Herzl, Marshall and Austin High Schools. There will be a number of stops, including the Garfield Park Conservatory, and a visit inside a former historic synagogue, Anshe Sholom on Independence Blvd. (now a Seventh Day Adventist church).

Depart 11:30 am — Bernard Horwich JCC, 3003 West Touhy — Return 5:30 pm

Depart 12:00 pm — Marriott Hotel, 540 N. Michigan (bus at Rush & Ohio) — Return 5:00 pm

$40/Member of CJHS $45/Nonmember

SUNDAY, AUGUST 15 — “CHICAGO JEWISH ARTS & ARTISTS”

Guide: Judith Joseph

This narrated tour features three fascinating stops. First, visit the studio of Sandra Holubow to see works in progress and hear from the artist herself. Then tour the Art Institute to view and learn about the works by world-famous Jewish artists in the museum collection. Back on the tour bus, pass some of the many contributions that Jewish architects and sculptors have made to Chicago’s urban beauty. Arrive at the ARC Gallery (a non-profit, woman artist-run cooperative exhibition space) to view a special installation by our guide, Judith Joseph, an accomplished artist and teacher.
