

“Cantor Dale Lind—Born to Sing!”

Unlike the conflicted hero of “The Jazz Singer,” Dale Lind didn’t see much difference between the sacred and the secular. His father, Cantor Joshua Lind, had given Dale and his brothers, Murray and Phil, cantorial training, but he encouraged them to sing in vaudeville and on the radio. Cantor Dale Lind will present an informal talk about his long, rich, and varied musical career. A book-signing of his autobiography, Applaudience, will follow the program.
